BEACH ATTENDANCE SETS A NEW EARLY RECORD

Attendance records for March, April and the first two weeks of the current month at Santa Monica Canyon, Manhattan, Redondo and Alamitos Bay beaches, owned and maintained by Los Angeles County, indicate, according to Fred E. Wadsworth, county superintendent of recreation camps and playgrounds, that the attendance at these beaches for the balance of the season will nearly quadruple all previous records at these areas.

The figures are enlightening. Last year the total attendance at these same areas for March and April and the first two weeks of May was 209,935. This year the figures read 946,500 or more than three-quarter-million difference. In other words the gain represented is in excess of 300 per cent.

A New 'Mary' Appears in Kiki At Warner Bros. San Pedro

Mary Pickford...star of "Kiki"

To "America's Sweetheart" herself is due the choice of the international stage success "Kiki" as her latest screen offering which will play at Warner Bros. Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

That Kiki represents a harum-scurum, gamine-like imp, who aspires to be a great lady, a great

Prominent Cast in Marion Davies' Latest Talkie

Marion Davies surrounded herself with a cast of Broadway celebrities in the supporting parts of "It's a Wise Child," which will be shown Sunday and Monday, May 21 and 22, at the Torrance Theater.

Prominent on the list of supporting players are Sidney Blackmer, who temporarily gave up the stage to appear in "The Last Man," James Gleason, identified with such Broadway stage hits as "The Shannons of Broadway" and "Is Zat So?" and Lester Vail, who has scored in a long string of footlight productions.

Polly Moran and Marie Prevost have character roles of widely different nature. Clara Blandick, Robert McWade, Johnny Arthur, Hilda Vaughn, Ben Alexander and Emily Fitzroy are the remaining members of the imposing cast.

'East Lynne' Has Been Read By Many Millions

"East Lynne," the story that has had enough vitality to live for generations, and entertain 100,000,000 people as a play and a novel, was written by an invalid in a reclining chair.

When we think of the author of a book with such a universal appeal that it can charm almost every person who has ever read it we imagine the author to be somewhat like the writing—healthy, strong, hearty, full of the vigor of life. That would be far from an accurate picture of Mrs. Henry Wood, who wrote "East Lynne."

For most of her days this gifted woman who wrote a number of other excellent novels, surpassed only by her masterpiece, was painfully ill and unable to sit up, except in the special chair in which she wrote.

In this Frank Lloyd, Fox production, which makes its appearance on the screen of the Fox Redondo Theater beginning Tuesday for a three-day run, the gloriously Ann Harding is starred as Isabel Carlyle. Clive Brook and Conrad Nagel enact the featured roles. Cecelia Loftus and Beryl Mercer head the meticulously chosen cast.

'RIDICULOUS'

Was the answer of Lilyan Tashman, above, to the charges of battery preferred against her by Alona Marlowe, also of the screen. Mrs. Marlowe's failure to appear before Los Angeles city prosecutor, however, resulted in a dismissal of the charges and all is now quiet on THAT Hollywood front at least.

Fastest Humans' Will Rule During Hermosa Pageant

Two of the world's "fastest humans" will reign as King and Queen of the Pre-Olympic Pageant and Water Sports at Hermosa Beach June 13. Olive Hatch, charming U. S. C. L. A. girl and holder of many records as one of the fastest swimmers in the world, will carry the honor of "Queen of the Pageant." Her royal consort will be none other than Frank Wykoff, U. S. C.'s world cinder path flash.

Hermosa's celebration will be devoted to "The Spirit of the Olympic Games," a theme which is winning it wide recognition as the only event of the kind planned in California's state-wide Fiesta Year program.

The pageant will be a brilliantly illuminated night event, with electrically lighted floats, bands and marching contingents, its line of march along the strand, bordering Hermosa's two-mile stretch of ocean beach, made light as day under the beams of great Kleig lights, white flares and a battery ship's full battery of search lights.

 Will Rogers Opens Week of Rare Treats

Will Rogers, the talking screen's most popular entertainer, in Mark Twain's "A Connecticut Yankee" is the offering at the Fox Plaza for Friday and Saturday. Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Albertson and William Farnum have important supporting parts.

For Sunday only, the Fox Plaza will present Jack Holt in "The Last Parade," a thrilling underworld story of a gangster's final fadeout. This production, more than any other picture stresses the fact that crime does not pay. Selected short subjects will also be on the program.

Monday and Tuesday brings Gary Cooper with the new screen find, Sylvia Sydney, in "City Streets." The story of "City Streets" is that of the back streets of a large metropolis, where gangster and law guardian, guilty and innocent, worker and racketeer meet and mingle in a great kaleidoscopic maze of intrigue and romance.

For Wednesday and Thursday, the Fox Plaza will offer another of those popular two-feature programs. This week it's Clara Bow in "Kick In" and John Gilbert in "A Gentleman's Fate."
